

Please do not exempt banking firms from the do not call list. Banks should not become privileged. The do not call list has given us privacy. Don't take this away from us for a select group.